

Jennifer Wiggins

Founder and CEO, Aegis Malpractice Solutions

The world of medical malpractice insurance is complicated, and too many doctors get overwhelmed when they don't know where to start.

Enter Jennifer Wiggins.

She started Aegis Malpractice Solutions in 2018 after 16 years working for one of the nation's largest malpractice insurance carriers.

Her goal: Demystify medmal with straightforward, transparent insights so clients can choose the best coverage for their practices.

Aegis is one of the only agencies in the country specializing in medical malpractice insurance, and Jennifer has risen to the top of her game thanks to her exhaustive industry knowledge and tireless customer service.

In Jennifer's own weekly podcast, Malpractice Insights, she shares actionable tips to help doctors stay protected and practice good medicine every day. Every episode is short and sweet.

Jennifer loves to talk about all things medmal, and she's eager to share her trademark clarity and breezy (yet comprehensive) knowledge with your listeners.
